WORSHIP: NOW AND FOREVER

FEBRUARY 16-18, 2007

*“But the hour is coming,
and is now here, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him.”*

John 4:23 (ESV)

Rev. Richard Woodson "Woody" Markert

Rev. Markert is the Senior Minister of Plains Presbyterian Church in Zachary, Louisiana, in the greater Baton Rouge area. This church is the oldest and largest Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) congregation in that state. During his tenure, fifteen young people from the church have entered full-time Christian service. Currently eight are in the PCA pastoral ministry or in seminary. None had entered the ministry in the church's previous 165 years of existence.

Woody Markert attended Tulane University, New Orleans. After working in sales and marketing for thirteen years, he finished his undergraduate studies at Belhaven College in Jackson, Mississippi. Upon completion of his Bachelor of Science degree, he enrolled at Reformed Theological Seminary (RTS), in Jackson, where he received his Master of Divinity degree. He is an ordained minister in the Presbyterian Church in America and has served churches in Kentucky, Mississippi, Alabama, and Louisiana.

Now serving in his thirtieth year in the pastoral ministry, he has preached at the General Assembly of the PCA and on the mission field. He has also spoken at biblical, theology, and mission conferences throughout the southeastern states and has contributed articles to various Christian periodicals. He is presently a member of the Committee on the Review and Control of Presbyteries of the PCA and has served on committees of commissioners and other denominational and presbytery committees.

Woody was converted to the Christian faith in his late twenties, as was his wife, Linda. It was through a reading of Francis Schaeffer particularly, along with the study of Scripture, that he came to understand his sin and his need of a Savior and embraced Jesus Christ.

Woody and Linda are the parents of four adult children and have eight grandchildren.

About the Host Church

Covenant Presbyterian Church is a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), a denomination that strives to be true to Scripture, the Reformed Faith, and the Great Commission of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The PCA was formed in 1973 as a continuing Reformed work. Our congregation was launched the following year and continues to serve as a beacon for the Gospel Light in west Houston and surrounding areas.

We welcome you to worship and fellowship with us any Sunday. Please refer to the conference agenda for the times of our weekly services.
